

Update: June 2026

Employment for qualified professionals – with foreign vocational training

As of March 2020 qualified professionals with a recognized foreign vocational training and a concrete job offer can apply for a visa. General information is provided here. You are only considered as a qualified professional, if you already went through the German recognition procedure. If you haven't completed the recognition process yet you are not considered as a qualified professional and you should therefore not apply for this type of visa.

Please note:

Further information regarding the possible “expedited procedure for qualified professionals” (fast track procedure) can be found here. There is also a separate category in our appointment system for this type of applicants.

You are required to present a valid passport (min. validity 6 months).

The following documents must be presented to the Embassy during your appointment. Make sure to handover only complete applications.

Submitted

- Filled in application form (national visa) + declaration form (Section 54 (2) 8 in conjunction with Section 53 of the Residence Act)
- 3 biometric passport photos (not older than 6 months)
- Copy of all pages of your passport (A4 size copy)
- Motivation letter + CV

- O/L & A/L examination certificates (authenticated by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Foreign Employment & Tourism)
- Vocational training certificate
- “Gleichwertigkeitsbescheid” or “Defizitbescheid“
- If applicable (regulated profession): “Berufsausübungserlaubnis“
- B1 certificate issued by Goethe Institut
 - If you intend to work in the health sector: B2 certificate
- Employment contract or letter of intent from your future employer in Germany, suitable to your qualification, including details about salary and working hours as well as full address of the employer
- Declaration of Employment (“Erklärung zum Beschäftigungsverhältnis”
- If applicable (fast track procedure): preliminary approval (“Vorabzustimmung”) of the Aliens’ Authority
- Information regarding your intended address in Germany (e.g. tenancy agreement or hotel reservation or invitation letter in case of private accommodation)
- Certificate about compulsory health insurance (“Gesetzliche Krankenversicherung”) from German employer valid from date of employment
- If not already included in the compulsory health insurance: a separate travel health insurance for the time frame from arrival in Germany until beginning of employment

Please prepare two identical application sets with the above-mentioned documents copied and bring all your original certificates along. Moreover, every set has to be sorted already in the correct order as showed above!

Fee: EUR 75 (to be paid in Rs., by credit card or cash) – no refund in case of rejection! Conversion into Rs. is made based on the exchange rate at the time of application.

As your application will also be forwarded to the competent immigration authorities in Germany, processing will take at least several weeks.

During that time no status inquiries are answered. Please refrain from contacting us during the procedure of your application.

Note further:

False or falsified documents will lead to the refusal of the visa and / or further consequences.

Incomplete applications may result in refusal. Complete documentation does not guarantee a visa approval.

The German Embassy Colombo reserves the right to ask for additional documents and / or call applicant for additional information or interview.
